Yoga Day Report 2022-2023

The Third International Day of Yoga was celebrated on June 21, 2022 by the National Service Scheme unit of S.P.D.T. College with great enthusiasm. Introductory and practice sessions of Yoga for the same were organized on June 21, 2022 in room No: 104.

Dr. Karuna Shinde started the session with breathing exercise, followed by meditation. During these sessions the participants were apprised of the concept of yoga and were briefed about its benefits. Various 'Yoga Asanas' and 'Pranayama' as stated in the Common Yoga Protocol (CYP) given by the Ministry of AYUSH were practiced. The sessions continued nearly for two hours starting from 8 am in the morning and were well attended both by teachers and students alike.

The event on 21st June, 2022 began at 8:00 am in Room No: 104 with a motivating address by the Principal, Dr. Trishla Mehta.

The participants were apprised about the importance of Yoga and the general guidelines for yoga practice were also enumerated. There were a total of Fifty participants including NSS volunteers and teaching faculty.

As directed by UGC, CYP was broadly followed during the session. The Yoga session commenced with recitation of a prayer which rejuvenated the souls and left a positive effect on mind, body and soul. This was followed by loosening exercises and different postures of Yogasanas, such as, 'Taadaasan', 'Vajrasana', 'Makaarasana' and 'Shavaasana', 'Kapalabathi', 'Brahmari Pranayama' and 'Dhyana' were also performed.

While the participants were performing these yoga exercises, they were simultaneously briefed about their benefits and the precautions to be observed. They were also advised to practice Yoga on a daily basis for their overall well-being.

The Yoga session came to an end with a 'Sankalpa' and 'Shanti patha'.
